

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU, INCLUDING MENTAL HEALTH AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH, MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

SoCO Primary Care Clinic (also referred to as “us” or “we”) is committed to protecting the privacy of your health information, both as an internal standard and as a legal requirement. This Notice describes our legal duties and privacy practices with regard to your health information. It also describes your rights and how you may exercise those rights. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) requires us to give you this Notice and to follow the terms of this Notice.

- We reserve the right to change this Notice and to make the revised or changed Notice effective for health information we already have about you as well as any new information we receive in the future.
- Paper copies of this Notice will be available at the office.

While HIPAA may allow SoCO Primary Care Clinic to use and disclose your health information without prior written authorization, stricter federal or state laws may require us to obtain your authorization for certain uses and disclosures. Substance use disorder records are further protected by the federal Confidentiality of Substance Use Disorder Patient Records, 42 U.S.C. § 290dd-2, 42 C.F.R. Part 2. Unless an exception applies SoCO Primary Care Clinic will obtain your authorization prior to using or disclosing substance abuse disorder records.

Most Common Uses and Disclosures of Your Health Information

The categories listed below describe ways that HIPAA allows SoCO Primary Care Clinic to use and disclose your health information without obtaining prior written authorization from you or your personal representative.

- For Treatment – We can use your health information and disclose it to other professionals to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and related services.
- For Payment – We can use and disclose your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities, including Medicare and Medicaid.
- For SoCO Primary Care Clinic Operations – We can use and disclose your health information to run our organization, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
- For Another Covered Entity’s Health Care Operations – We can disclose your health information to another HIPAA covered entity that has (or had) a relationship with you for their operations.
- Personal Representatives – We can share your health information with a person who has the authority under law to make health care decisions for you. Parents and legal guardians generally represent minors, unless a minor is permitted by law to act on his/her own behalf and make his/her own medical decisions.

- Appointment Confirmations, Follow-Up Calls, and Treatment Alternatives – We may contact you to confirm your appointment with us; check on you after you have received services; or tell you about services that we provide or other possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Your Rights Regarding Your Health Information

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you. If you need additional information about any of your rights, please ask us.

- Get an Electronic or Paper Copy of Your Medical Record
 - You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Typically, this includes medical and billing records, but may not include some mental health information. You have the right to ask us to send a copy of your health information to other individuals that you designate.
 - We will provide a copy or summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- Ask Us to Amend Your Medical Record
 - If you feel that health information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you can ask us to amend it.
 - We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
- Request Confidential Communications
 - You can ask us to contact you in a way that is more confidential for you or to mail to a different address.
 - We will accommodate reasonable requests.
- Ask Us to Limit What We Use or Share
 - You can ask us to restrict or limit the health information we use or share for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
 - If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you may ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.
 - We must say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information or in the case of an emergency.
- Get a List of Those With Whom We’ve Shared Information
 - You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
 - We will include all disclosures except for those made for treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as those you asked us to make). We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- Get a Copy of This Privacy Notice – You can ask for a paper copy of this Notice at any time and this will be provided to you promptly.
- Notice of Breach – If there is an unauthorized use or sharing of your health information that compromises the privacy or security of your health information, we will notify you in writing as required by law. The law may not require notification to you in all cases. In some situations, even if the law does not require notification, we may choose to notify you anyway.
- File a Complaint if You Feel Your Rights are Violated – If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
 - To file a complaint with us, call Nicole Betts or Chelsea Frey at 719-582-1898 or write to Nicole or Chelsea at, 1310 Fortino Blvd. Ste D. Pueblo, CO 81008.

- Complaints to the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) must be in writing and can be made using one of the following methods:
 - Through the OCR Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/smartscreen/main.jsf>.
 - By mail at Centralized Case Management Services, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Ave SW, Room 509F HHH Building, Washington, D.C. 20201.
 - By phone at 1-800-368-1019, 800-537-7697 (TDD).
 - By email at OCRComplaint@hhs.gov.
- For More Information or Questions About Your Rights – If you have questions about our privacy practices or how to exercise your rights, call Nicole Betts or Chelsea Frey at 719-582-1898 or write to Nicole or Chelsea at, 1310 Fortino Blvd. Ste D. Pueblo, CO 81008.

For your protection, we may check your identity whenever you have questions about your treatment and payment activities. We will check your identity whenever we get a request to look at, copy, or amend your records; to obtain a list of disclosures of your health information; for confidential communications; or to limit the information we use or share (restriction requests).

Other Potential Uses and Disclosures of Your Health Information

This section describes potential ways in which HIPAA permits or requires SoCO Primary Care Clinic to use or disclose your health information within prior written authorization. Not every type of use or disclosure in a category is listed. If a stricter state or federal law applies, SoCO Primary Care Clinic will comply with the stricter law.

- Require by Law – We will share information about you if required by state or federal law. This includes disclosing information to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we’re complying with federal privacy law.
- For Public Health and Safety Issues – We can share information about you for certain situations such as:
 - To help stop or reduce a serious threat to the health or safety of you, another person, or the public.
 - To prevent or control disease, injury, or disability.
 - To report suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.
- Health Oversight Activities – We can share health information about you with health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law such as licensing, auditing, and accreditation.
- Lawsuits and Other Legal Actions – We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.
- Organ, Eye, and Tissue Donation Requests – If you an organ, eye, or tissue donor, we can share health information with an organ donation bank, as necessary to carry out their duties when an individual dies.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners, and Funeral Directors – We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director, as necessary to carry out their duties when an individual dies.
- Address Workers’ Compensation – We can release your health information as authorized by applicable law to programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses
- Address or Respond to Law Enforcement and Other Government Requests – We can use or share health information about you:
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official. For example:
 - Identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person.
 - Report criminal conduct on the premises of SoCO Primary Care Clinic.
 - To the correctional institution if you are an inmate.
 - For special government functions such as military, national security, and intelligence activities, and presidential protective services.

- Research and Related Activities – We can use or share health information for research purposes when allowed by law.
- For Disaster-Relief Efforts – We can share your health information with disaster relief organizations if the information is necessary to coordinate your care or notify family and friends of your location or condition in a disaster. When possible, we will ask you to decide if we can share that information.
- Fundraising and Other SoCO Primary Care Clinic Events and Activities – We can contact you to provide you with information about SoCO Primary Care Clinic events and activities, including fundraising, or to ask if you want to participate in a news story for a SoCO Primary Care Clinic publication, a television news story, or something similar. If we contact you, you can tell us not to contact you again about fundraising efforts. We will get your written authorization before disclosing any of your health information for a news story or publicity purposes.

Uses and Disclosures of Your Health Information Pursuant to Authorization

Other uses or disclosures of your health information not described in this Notice require SoCO Primary Care Clinic to obtain written authorization from you or your personal representative before using or disclosing the information. Specific examples of uses or disclosures that require written authorization include:

- Marketing activities (unless an exception applies).
- Disclosures that constitute the sale of health information.
- Disclosures of substance abuse disorder records (unless an exception applies).
- Most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes.
 - Note: “psychotherapy notes” is narrowly defined under HIPAA and most of the information in your electronic health record does not fall within the definition.

SoCO Primary Care Clinic will also get your authorization prior to disclosing your health information as follows:

- To a Health Information Exchange – An electronic health information exchange (HIE) allows SoCO Primary Care Clinic and other providers to disclose and receive information about individuals we serve.
 - SoCO Primary Care Clinic participates in an HIE and for treatment and payment purposes may disclose your health information to other providers and health plans in the HIE.
 - Your participation in the HIE is voluntary, and we will obtain your written authorization before including you in the HIE.
- To Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care – HIPAA requires SoCO Primary Care Clinic to give you an opportunity to agree or object before we disclose any of your health information to a person involved in your care or payment for your care.
 - Colorado law is much stricter and requires us to obtain your information before disclosing your health information to a family member or a friend who is not your personal representative. RMPCC follows Colorado law.

You will be able to revoke (cancel) your authorization at any time, except to the extent that SoCO Primary Care Clinic has already disclosed information in reliance on it. Your revocation must be submitted in writing to Nicole Betts or Chelsea Frey.

Notice Regarding Confidentiality of Substance Use Disorder Patient Records (42 CFR § 2.22)

The confidentiality of substance use disorder patient records maintained by SoCO Primary Care Clinic is protected by federal law and regulations (42 U.S.C. § 293dd-2, 42 C.F.R. Part 2). Generally, we may not tell a person outside of SoCO Primary Care Clinic that you are receiving services from us for a substance use disorder, or disclose any information identifying you as a person that has or had a substance use disorder, unless:

- You consent in writing to the disclosure; or
- The disclosure is made to a qualified service organization with which SoCO has a written agreement; or
- The disclosure is allowed by a court order; or
- The disclosure is made to medical personnel in a bona fide medical emergency or to qualified personnel for certain research, audit, or program evaluation.

Federal law and regulations also do not protect any information about:

- A crime you commit or threaten to commit at the SoCO Primary Care Clinic facility or against any person who works for SoCO Primary Care Clinic.
- Suspected child abuse or neglect required by state law to be reported to appropriate state or local authorities.

Violation by SoCO Primary Care Clinic of the federal law and regulations is a crime.

- Suspected violations may be reported to the U.S. Attorney for the District of Colorado, 1801 California Street, Suite 1600, Denver, CO 80202; phone: 303-454-0100.
- Suspected violations by an opioid treatment program may be reported to the Substance Use and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Opioid Treatment Program Compliance Office by phone at 204-276-2700 or online at OTP-extranet@opioid.samhsa.gov.
